Registration Open!
Information for the 41st Australian Association of Stomal Therapy Nurses National Conference will be available to view on the conference website www.stomaltherapyconference.com as details are confirmed. You can register via the simple online process and the early bird rate closes in January 2017. The program will showcase an exciting line up of invited speakers presenting on diverse topics including Stoma Care, Wound Management, Continence, Paediatrics, Cultural Diversity and much more.

Who should attend?
- Stomal Therapy, Continence and Wound Care Nurses
- Nurses with an interest in stoma, wound and continence
- Medical practitioners
- Allied health professionals
- Health Educators
- Clinical Leaders
- Service Coordinators
- Clinical Service Managers
- Academics & Researchers

Attendance at this conference can earn delegates Continuing Professional Development points. See the AHPRA website for more information.

www.stomaltherapyconference.com